Warning!

The parties who defraud the public and ourselves by endeavoring to imitate our flour, do not imitate the flour, however. They imitate only sack and brand. "What a fair outside falsehood hath."

It is a risky business these people undertake. It is not printed on the sacks where the boxes flour is made. In the moon perhaps. If so the genuine flour has reached that delectable above.

VALUABLE PAPERS.

Sarah Mitchell Holds the Key to the Mystery Surrounding the Sharon Divorce Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—Publication was made yesterday of the fact that a bundle of letters written by Justice Field and Francis J. Newlands, Senator Sharon's son-in-law, and bearing on peculiar procedure in the Sharon divorce case, were in the hands of Mrs. Sarah Mitchell, the landlady of Newland's confidential agent, Chas. Livingstone. It is said that the woman wants $5,000 for these letters, as she declares they are worth that money, should she deliver them to Sarah Althes. She hints that they reveal many compromising transactions in the Sharon case, especially after the Senator's death, but young Sharon and Newlands both assert that no such letters are in existence. Justice Field also says that she may print any letters of his which she holds. The case excites much attention here because of the mystery that has always hung around the Sharon case.

A TRIUMPHANT PAGEANT

Is the Reception Accorded Premier Mercier on His Return.

MONTREAL, July 24.—Premier Mercier was given a grand reception here last night. A great procession escorted Count Mercier through the streets. It was one triumphant pageant, and the hundred thousand odd who lined the route kept up a continuous cheering. While en route to the city Premier Mercier cordially received a representative of the United Press. He said: "I am more than pleased to see a representative of the press of the United States come to welcome me home. The United States is dear to me, for I have many friends there. I admire your people, your nation and your institutions, and I think that I can safely say that the day is not far distant when, though we may live under different flags, under different systems of government, yet we will be one people, as we should be, under reciprocal trade."

A DESPERATE DUEL.

Two Railroaders Fight for the Hand of a Young Lady.

ERIE, Pa., July 24.—Robert Caruthers, of Baltimore, and Lewis Derry, of Buffalo, railroad men, fought a duel here yesterday, with a knife and a revolver. The men had been good friends, but became rivals, both being in love with the same young woman. Yesterday they met and immediately drew weapons, Derry having a knife and Carruthers a revolver. Derry's keen blade swept across Caruthers' face, cutting off an ear and opening his face to the bone. Caruthers shot Derry, but they closed in and fought with terrible desperation. Derry was wounded in the groin. His rival was desperately wounded. Both men are now in a hospital.

A FIG ORCHARD.

A Syndicate Purchase Land Upon Which to Plant One.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—Great interest is aroused among the people of Pomona valley by the purchase yesterday of 460 acres of land, with an option of 800 more, for the purpose of planting the largest fig orchard in the world. S. P. Mandeville, representing a syndicate of wholesale fruit dealers in Chicago and St. Louis, has made the purchase for $85,000. Large capital will be expended in the irrigation system for land and in dry houses and packing sheds for the ripene figs. The syndicate will import 73,000 young fig trees from Syria for planting during next winter.

WHISPERS OF PEACE.

The American Association and the National League Will Embrace.

CINCINNATI, July 24.—There are official whispers of peace in the air as regards the fight now waging between the American association and the National league. The Association people are tired of the fray and it is said that President Kramer, of that body, has declared that the war must end, even if he has to make the first offer of peace. This decision on the part of the Association people will delight every true lover of the game.

GREATLY EXAGGERATED.

The Stoning of Americans the Deed of Boys.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 24.—The stoning of American Protestants in Durango, on the 5th inst., has been greatly exaggerated. The persons throwing the stones were boys and vagabonds, while the Americans themselves were violating the laws of reform by holding religious services in the open air. The authorities promptly arrested the guilty parties.

BRUTAL TRAMPS

Murder a Saloonkeeper and Rob His Establishment.

BILLINGS, Mont., July 24.—This town has been overrun with tramps and bad characters for the past month. Last evening an old citizen was assaulted in his place of business by three of them, and brutally murdered. The three bums are in the custody of the sheriff, and the coroner's inquest is being held. The murdered man is Joe Clancey, a saloonkeeper. Excitement is running high, and it is extremely probable that the developments of a coroner's inquest may result in murder.

CLEVELAND AND BLAINE.

Chief Justice Fuller Thinks They Will be the Leaders in 1892.

SAN FRANCISC, July 24.—Chief Justice Fuller, who is at Tacoma, said in an interview Wednesday: "There is a great deal of talk about Blaine in the east as a presidential candidate, and the man from Maine is plainly the leader of the party. Harrison's administration has been successful, but I believe a great deal of its popularity is due to James G. Blaine. He is a remarkable man, and it would not surprise me to see Blaine and Cleveland leaders of the next political battle."

A COLORED FIEND

Outrages a Farmer's Wife and Flees Pursued by the Sheriff.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. July 24.—Wednesday afternoon, a negro named Walter Hart, went to the farm house of J. B. Herbert, near Hall's Station, Buchanan county, and criminally assaulted Mrs. Houser. Her husband was at work in the wheat field at the time, and upon his return home found his wife bound and gagged and nearly dead. The negro fled toward Atchison. Sheriff Spratt, of Buchanan county, is on the trail of the rapist.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 24.—Otto Smith, the last of the Horton gang of burglars, was taken to the penitentiary yesterday. On the way to the station he declared that the testimony given by himself and others was pure fabrication and was given under the promise that it would result in shorter terms of imprisonment. He said Rheinhold went to prison an innocent man.

BRITISH IMPORTS.

Canadians Discuss the Question With Englishmen.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 24.—At a private conference yesterday with members of parliament Col. Howard Vincent, of the United Empire Trade league, urged that the domination parliament should this session pass a resolution in favor of placing the preferential duties upon British imports when the Imperial parliament shall signify its willingness to reciprocate by placing a small duty upon all food products from other countries.

RAN AGROUND.

The French Flagship Marceuho Sticks on a Sand Bar.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 24.—Upon nearing Cronstadt, the French ironclads Marceau and Marceuho, the latter the flagship of Admiral Gervais, ran aground. The Marceau was floated and proceeded with the others, but the Marceuho remained fast for some time. The fleets did not salute each other, as they could not do so in the absence of the flagship.

FRENCHMEN HONORED.

Russia Decorates Elaborately in Honor of Her Distinguished Guests.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 24.—The station which marks the St. Petersburg terminus of the little twenty miles railway that connects this city with Constadt is handsomely decorated in brilliant bunting and numerous Russian and French flags in honor of her distinguished visitors from the fleet of the French republic now anchored in Cronstadt roadway. When the train pulled into the station and the French admiral and the officers of his staff, accompanied by M DeLaboulaye, the ambassador of France to Russia, and the members of the embassy stepped upon the platform they were received by the Grand Duke Alexis, representing the Czar, and by a number of the ministers of state. An enormous crowd had assembled in the vicinity of the station, and as soon as the Frenchmen were discovered, they were greeted by repeated and hearty cheers. The visitors were at once driven to the quarters which had been prepared for their reception. Later in the day a grand banquet was given in honor of Admiral Gervais and his officers by the French ambassador, M. DeLaboulaye.

SHIP BURNED.

The British Bark Syringa Takes Fire in Mid Ocean.

PHILADELPHIA, July 24.—The British bark Syringa, which left this port on Tuesday, bound for Vigo, Spain, caught fire and was partially destroyed off the fourteen fathom bank light yesterday morning. The captain, his officers and crew were rescued by the tug Reliance, although the second mate and two of the seamen were severely scorched about the hands while battling with the flames. The Syringa cleared the custom house here last Monday, laden with 22,000 cases of crude petroleum, aggregating 220,000 gallons and valued at $17,000. She sailed on the following day. Her destination was Vigo, she was commanded by Capt. Jos. Baker, an Englishman, who was accompanied by his wife and two children, and by Miss Day, of this city, who was going aboard as companion to the captain's wife. Captain Baker lives at Liverpool, where his vessel was also listed. The Syringa was built at New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, in 1875. She was 145 feet 5 inches long, 32 feet 6 inches beam, and her depth of hold was 18 feet 5 inches. She was a three-decked wooden vessel, and was valued at $15,000, which, coupled with the entire destruction of the cargo, makes the loss over $32,000, covered by a fair amount of insurance.

BRIDGE COLLAPSES.

The New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio Has Another Accident.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., July 24.—West bound freight train No. 83, broke in three sections just east of Waterboro, on the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio railroad yesterday, at 3.30 p. m. Two of the sections came together on the centre of the east span of the bridge, No. 6, with such force as to derail the cars and throw them into the main trusses of the bridge, thereby breaking the trusses and destroying the structure. Nobody was injured. Four loaded and four empty cars fell into the river, which is at present dry and about twenty feet below the rail. Traffic on the line is not being delayed, as trains are running via the Buffalo, Southwestern and Dayton branch, of the western division.

WAREHOUSES BURNED.

His mother is a widow and has nine other children, most of them married.

DENVER, July 24.—The narrow gauge east-bound express from Saliday, Col., on the Denver and Rio Grande railroad, collided with the broad guage Salt Lake express going west, a few miles from Carlisle, early this morning. The trains were running at full speed and were heavily loaded. The engine and front coach of both trains were completely wrecked and four persons were killed.

BASE BALL NEWS.

The Jig is up With the Syracuse—The Buffalo's in a Bad Way.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 24.—President White, of the Eastern Base Ball association, was in the city last night en route to Toronto. He said the jig was up at Syracuse and that he was on his way to Toronto for the purpose of placing the Syracuse club there. He is confident that Toronto will accept it, but in case it should not the club will be placed somewhere else. Mr. White has called a meeting of the association to be held in Albany Saturday night, when all difficulties will be adjusted. There was a rumor in circulation here yesterday that the Buffalo club was likely to disband. Manager Powers said last night that the rumor was highly exaggerated. "'Tis true," he said, "that the directors are discouraged at the meagre attendance at the games in this city for some time past, and unless they are patronized more liberally some of the players will be dispensed with in order to make both ends meet, but as far as disbanding is concerned, there is no thought of it."

STILL OBDURATE.

California's Unpatriotic Governor Refuses to Aid the World's Fair.

SACRAMENTO, Cala., July 24.—State Controller Colgan doubts the constitutionality of the legislative act appropriating $800,000 for California's exhibit at the world's fair, and has in consequence refused to draw his warrant for the amount due as office rent for the California world's fair committee. The comptroller wishes the supreme court to decide the question before he pays out any money.

He was taken by a crowd of angry citizens, and after drenching him to the skin with water, they drove him out of town. Baker was well dressed and claims to represent the A. V. Bayne Bridge company, of Minneapolis.

GOVERNOR HOVEY HERE.

ENCAMPMENT ALMOST ENDED.

Camp Will be Broken Saturday Afternoon—The Grand Parade This Evening—Notes From the Camp.

ARTILLERY and infantry in the field, as seen in the dress parade at the Camp of instruction last evening, was the most majestic formation that has ever been witnessed in this city. The appointed hour for the drill, 6 o'clock, was yet half an hour hence when a multitude of spectators had gathered around the race track enclosure where the parade was to take place. The four regiments of infantry and the one regiment of artillery moved like clock-work over the ground, and the five bands consolidated into one aggregation added much to the music. Adjutant General Ruckle reviewed the troops from the saddle, and in stentorian tones gave the commands for various military manoeuvres. The parade was soon over, and the large crowd dispersed with expressions of admiration for the grand spectacle they had witnessed.

COL. W. D. BWING, FIRST REGT.

The great attraction today is Governor Alvin P. Hovey, who arrived over the Wabash road at 1:10 o'clock this afternoon. He was met by his staff and the citizens committee of arrangements who escorted His Excellency to the encampment grounds. The following side-de camps compose the governor's staff: Major W. A. Oliphant, Union; Major W. O. Lamb, Indianapolis; Major P. S. Heath, Muncie; Major J. W. Thayer, Plymouth; Major J. M. McGill, Valparaiso; Major A. D. Bond, Richmond; Major E. S. Walker, West Lebanon; Major G. W. Wilson, Fort Wayne; Major G. W. Kimble, Mount Vernon; Major David S. Bender, Logansport; Major C. D. Tillo, Fort Wayne. This afternoon at 3 o'clock Governor Hovey reviews the troops, after which there will be an early mess call. The troops will form in line about 6:30 p. m., and the head of column will probably reach Columbia street a little later. Each regiment will be headed by its own band, and Governor Hovey and staff will ride in carriages in the middle of the procession. The line of march, as already published, will be on Columbia to Calhoun, south on Calhoun to Jefferson, west on Jefferson to Broadway, north on Broadway to Wayne, east on Wayne to Calhoun, north on Calhoun to Main, east on Main to Clay, thence to camp ground.

COL. C. W. GUNDER, FOURTH REGT.

ARRANGEMENT COMMITTEE.

How did Fort Wayne happen to get the encampment? It was not the unanimous choice of the military authorities that brought it here. The selection was made only after strong arguments had been brought to bear upon the governor and adjutant general by Major Tillo, Postmaster Higgins Colonel Zollinger and others who afterward composed the committee of arrangements. The committee was formed as follows: C. R. Higgins, chairman; Mayor C. A. Zollinger, treasurer; Major C. D. Tillo, Fred C. Boltz, Al Friend and Dennis Monahan. These gentlemen spent time and money to accomplish the good end they attained. They raised $900 with which to cover the expenses arising from the pre-requisites to secure the encampment, viz., to furnish the grounds, wood, straw and water. This was done to the satisfaction of Colonel Ruckle and the officers who are unanimous in the declaration that the encampment is better situated and provided for more satisfactorily than the encampments of preceding years. In return for the labors of this committee the merchants have all been reaping the benefits that are derived from an event of this kind. The citizens, too, will appreciate the committee's work. THE SENTINEL today presents the familiar features of the members of this committee, with the exception of F. C. Boltz, whose photograph could not be procured in time to get a cut. Mr. Boltz was one of the hardest workers of the committee and THE SENTINEL regrets that his bland countenance does grace this gallery of "hustlers" for the encampment.

CAPT. MUNGEN, ZOLLINGER BATTERY.

RECEPTION TO GOVERNOR HOVEY.

At the request of Mayor Zollinger the Morton club, through its board of directors has tendered to a citizens' committee the use of their parlors and hall for a public reception to Governor Hovey and staff this evening from 8 to 11.

MAJOR E. L. SIVEY, FORT WAYNE.

MAYOR ZOLLINGER, TREASURER COM.

THE SENTINEL SWORD.

The contest for THE SENTINEL sword, to be presented to the most popular captain, will close at 10 a. m. tomorrow (Saturday). All votes to be counted must be in by that time. To meet the demand for papers THE SENTINEL office will be open this evening until 9 o'clock. At 10 o'clock the counting will begin in earnest.

THEOSOPHY has its advocates in Fort Wayne.

OUR base ball club is getting towards the tail end of the league.

LET the city be gaily decorated today in honor of our state's soldier boys.

THE SENTINEL's picture gallery today is a fine one. It presents some of our home men.

JUDGE ALLAN ZOLLARS delivered an interesting address at Spring Fountain Park assembly yesterday.

THE harvest throughout the nation is about ended and the yield is more than an average. Uncle Sam will have grain to sell.

THE new street railroad on Clinton street is rapidly approaching completion. Fort Wayne needs more street railroads, and it also needs the electric cars.

WHILE John J. Ingalls was a United States senator he wrote 40,000 letters to constituents, not counting speeches, public documents, and packages of seed sent upon request.

IN Summer county, Missouri, there is one dog to every ten people, which is better, of course, than ten dogs to one person, which is the proportion in some sections of Missouri.

THE following beautiful paragraph is from the pen of D. L. Moody: "It is a great deal better to live a holy life than to talk about it. Light houses don't ring bells and fire cannon to call attention to their shining—they just shine."

MEN who go abroad do not care to remain there. Minister Douglass says he would much rather live in this country than in Hayti. That seems to be the idea of about all our ministers to foreign powers, and it accounts for the frequency and length of their furloughs.

GOVERNOR CAMPBELL has requested that ex-President Cleveland, Governor Hill, General Palmer, of Illinois; Governor Peck, of Wisconsin; Governor Boies, of Iowa; Senator Voorhees and Senator Vance be invited to take part in the Ohio campaign. From two to six speeches are expected from each of these gentlemen.

THE soldier boys of the state, who have been in camp near this city during the present week, will leave tomorrow for their homes. Their annual encampment has been a pleasant and profitable one, and they will go away with the praise of our citizens for their gentlemanly conduct while they have been with us. They are a magnificent body of young soldiers and Indiana is proud of them. In the grand parade which takes place this evening through the principal streets of our city the thousands of spectators will join in words of praise of them, and they are deserving of it.

WORD comes from Columbus, Ohio, that Judge Allen G. Thurman is failing fast. Failure to take exercise is causing him to lose his physical strength. Since he left public life he has practically shut himself in his library. He reads nearly all the night and does not rise until noon. His participation in the last presidential campaign doubtless added days to his life because it compelled him to take physical exercise that nothing else would have succeeded in making him take. Mrs. Thurman has been ill for several weeks, and is yet confined to her bed. She urges him constantly to take some kind of physical exercise, and succeeds in a degree. Since she has been unable to look after him he has taken little more exercise than could be secured in walking from his library to the living and dining room. Thurman still retains his hearty appetite.

IN ANSWER to a query from the secretary of state, Attorney General Smith has written an opinion defining the powers, qualifications and jurisdictions of notaries public. He cites the act of 1891, which provides that no person holding a lucrative office may be a notary public. He holds that when a person accepts a lucrative office he surrenders his position as a notary public. In defining what lucrative offices are, the attorney general says that town trustees, city hospitals, deputies in county offices and many of the minor officers are not filling lucrative offices. He also holds that minors and women may become notaries.

SO UNUSUAL is the demand from all the large cities for dimes that Director of the Mint Leech has ordered the mints at Philadelphia, New Orleans and San Francisco to stop coining all other money and devote themselves entirely to the manufacture of dimes. It is almost impossible to realize the demand for this coin. Within the last three years no less than $3,176,476 worth of dimes were coined, which means 31,764,760 coins. So far this year $1,500,000 or 15,000,000 dimes have been struck off and now the demand has become so great that, as stated, all three of the United States mints will devote themselves entirely to turning out dimes. It is estimated that they are being turned out now at the rate of 100,000 a day. Mr Leech is using for the purpose all the uncurrent silver coins available and has started on the $3,000,000 of uncurrent half-dollars, a coin which it seems almost absolutely impossible to force into general circulation. While the size and convenience of the dime makes it a general favorite, it is supposed that the sudden craze for the dime savings banks is the cause for the demand just now.

PRESIDENTIAL CONVENTIONS.

When the national republican executive committee meets at Philadelphia next Wednesday in response to Senator Quay's call, it is not at all improbable that the entire committee will be recast. Mr. Quay, it is now generally conceded, will resign the chairmanship and Mr. Clarkson will succeed him, thus making it necessary to elect a new vice chairman.

It is also likely that Colonel Dudley, who is now the treasurer of the committee, will resign that position, as his extensive business interests make it impossible for him to attend to it any longer. Mr. Dudley, it is said, desires to be succeeded by Henry O. Payne, of Wisconsin, though this may be objected to, since as Mr. Clarkson is to be made chairman the other office ought not to go to the west, and in that case Col. A. L. Conger, of Ohio, would be more satisfactory on geographical grounds.

It is generally believed that the question of the time and place of the next convention will very naturally be brought up. Of course the matter can not be formally discussed, but there will probably be a general interchange of views on the subject. The formal selection of the time and place rests with the full committee and not with the executive committee.

It seems most certain that the executive committee at its next meeting will in its informal conference agree that the next convention ought to be held in Chicago and in May. By general consent Chicago seems to be favored as the best place for the convention, the experience at St. Louis and Cincinnati not having been such as to make a return to either of those cities desirable. This is true of the democratic as well as of the republican national convention and the party leaders incline to the view that the democratic convention will be held in Chicago as well as the republican one.

As for the time of the meeting, both parties favor the month of May. As a matter of business and political convenience it is just as well to hold the convention one month earlier than is now customary, and as a matter of personal convenience an earlier month would be a great improvement. All the western towns are sweltering ovens in June and the vexations of convention week are severe enough to the men in charge of them without being further increased by June heat. So that the conventions of the two parties next year seem likely to be held in Chicago and both in the month of May.

A CHANCE FOR ADVENTURERS.

Balmaceda Makes an Effort to Man His War Ships With Americans.

NEW YORK, July 23.—It is stated that an agent of Balmaceda's government has traversed the whole coast of New England, from Cape Cod to Eastport, for the purpose of hiring sailors to make up crews for two men of war ships. The ships have been fitted out in France, but the necessary officers and crews could not be secured in Europe. The agent offers large bounties and big wages. How far he succeeded is not known.

INTO TOLEDO.

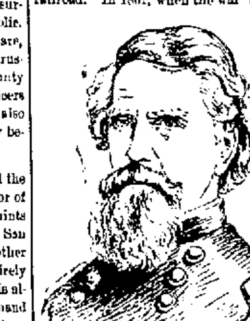

The Pennsylvania Secures Another Line to Lake Ports.

TOLEDO, July 23.—First Vice-President James McCrea, of the Pennsylvania, has issued a circular announcing officially that the Northwestern Ohio railroad having consolidated with the Walholding Valley road, as the Toledo, Walholding and Ohio railroad, it would hereafter be operated as the Toledo division of the Pennsylvania line west of Pittsburg.

GEN. B. F. KELLEY.

Whose Death Occurred Last Week, Was the Oldest Union General.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 24.—Gen. Benjamin F. Kelley, whose death occurred on July 16, was at that time the oldest union general in the country. He was a brave and distinguished soldier. He was born in New Hampton, New Hampshire, in 1807. When nineteen years of age he settled in Wheeling, W. Va., and remained in business, as a merchant, until 1851, when he became a freight agent of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. In 1861, when the war broke out, he raised the first Virginia regiment for the national army, and was commissioned its colonel. The loyal part of Virginia was afterwards called West Virginia. Colonel Kelley fought at Phillipi, near Grafton, W. Va., and was severely wounded. He was appointed brigadier general of Volunteers on the 17th of May, 1861; captured Romney in October, and gained another signal victory at Blue's Gap. He was given the command of the department of Harper's Ferry and Cumberland, but on account of his wounds was relieved in January, 1862.

Regaining his strength the following summer he resumed command and under General John C. Fremont was in July 1863 assigned to the department of West Virginia. General Kelley pursued Lee after his passage of the Potomac and in November, 1863, destroyed the camp of the confederates under John D. Imboden near Morefield, Va.

In the summer of 1864 he defeated the confederate troops successively at Cumberland, New Creek and Morefield, Va. He was brevetted major general of volunteers in 1865. At the close of the war he was appointed collector of internal revenue for the First district of West Virginia in 1876. He became superintendent of the Hot Springs reservation, Ark., and examiner of pensions in 1883.

THEOSOPHY DISCUSSED

In a Brilliant Way by Judge McBride, Judge O'Rourke and Dr. Buchman.

The hall of the Morton club was well filled last night to listen to a lecture on theosophy, by Judge R. Wes McBride, one of the judges of the supreme court of Indiana.

The speaker was introduced in a pleasant way by Dr. A. P. Buchman, and Judge McBride, after preliminary remarks, delivered in an eloquent manner the address which he had prepared on the subject. It was a plain, interesting and able statement of the philosophy and science believed by most of the members of the Theosophical society.

Its doctrines, he said, are not intended to tear down the truths of religion, but to form common ground upon which the people of all sects and creed can meet to work for the betterment of the conditions of all classes of men. The judge said he was a member of the church and a firm believer of the religion taught by Christ, yet, with all consistency, he could advocate the claims of this society to public consideration, for he had for years investigated its doctrines and believed in the good that it was doing and would do for mankind.

Its three objects, he said, could be briefly stated as follows:

First. To form the nucleus of a universal brotherhood of man, without regard to race creed, or color, and asserted that man is physically, mentally and spiritually of the same origin.

Second—To encourage the study of Eastern Ancient Aryan literature, stating that research has demonstrated the fact that the instruction of all the great teachers—Jesus of Nazareth, Zoroaster, Budda and the leaders of great movements looking toward the spiritual uplifting of mankind were in the main, identical.

The third, object of the Theosophical society, Judge McBride, stated to be the development of the psychic powers, latent in man.

The judge continued his address at length and held his audience interested until the close. He was followed by Dr. A. P. Buchman, who spoke briefly upon "Evolution." He began with the lowest element of germ life, the monad and led his hearers upward until the monad had been conducted through evolution to the physical man. Going still further, he outlined the theory of after life on other planes than the physical plain upon which we now exist.

Judge O'Rourke was then called upon and spoke upon reincarnation and rebirth. His arguments were practically the same as given in THE SENTINEL a week ago.

It is probable that William Q. Judge, the acknowledged head of the Theosophical society in the United States, who is now in Europe, will be secured by the Fort Wayne branch of the Theosophical society to deliver an address at the Masonic Temple some time during September or October of this year.

New York's Queer Law Regarding Sleeping Car Transportation—Local Matter of Interest.

Wagner Palace Car company officials and the Pullman magnates have been astounded at the discovery that the late New York legislature passed a bill fixing the maximum rate for sleeping car transportation between any two points in New York state at 80 cents. The new law took effect May 1. How it could have been passed quietly without discovery is a poser, as the Vanderbilt lobby at Albany is always most powerful and watches the interests of the Wagner company as zealously as it does those of the New York Central. O. D. Flagg, general superintendent of the Wagner, had not heard of the law until yesterday and could say nothing in regard to the policy of the company. To a reporter he said:

"Some years ago a law was passed which greatly resembled this. It was at the time when the only sleeping cars were those which had berths only twenty inches wide, built three in a tier. These cars were first put on the road in 1868, and the rates charged were, I think, $1.50. As the desire for better accommodations grew these cars gradually disappeared, to be replaced by the modern vestibuled sleepers. The modern berth is, at the least, thirty-three inches wide and is regarded as double. Could the Wagner company run the cars today at 80 cents per berth? Certainly not. Such rates would be simply ruinous. Many efforts have been made in some states to pass laws to the same effect. The Pullman company has been contending for years against an effort in the Illinois legislature to fix the charge at $1. In Minnesota such a law has been passed, but it is simply regarded as a dead letter. We run our cars in that state and charge the usual rate. Just what would happen were the state to take the matter in hand I can't say. Of course, we secured our charter from the state, but it is on very broad terms and no reference is made to the tariff. I should say that the only remedy for the individual, did he care to press the question, would be to bring the matter before a proper court. He would have to ask for a ticket for 80 cents and pay the regular charge under protest. It is needless for me to say that the company would contest the matter to the end. However, it isn't a question which disturbs me at all, nor have I given it much thought."

SLIGHT WRECK IN IOWA.

Yesterday morning St. Louis train No. 7, on the Wabash road, was wrecked about thirty-five miles east of Des Moines. A broken rail caused the accident and three coaches were plunged down an embankment. Fifteen people were in the sleeper and in the first coach. Of this number four were injured, but none fatally.

Timely Advice.

Now is the time to provide yourself and family with a reliable remedy for bowel complaints. It is almost certain to be needed, and no family can afford to be without it. It costs but a trifle and may be the means of saving much suffering, if not life. There are many different remedies in use, but Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is undoubtedly the best. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists.

WON TWO, FORFEITED ONE.

In the Result of the Evansville-Fort Wayne Series.

Captain Joseph Jefferson O'Rourke, at the head of the Midget batallion, marched to League park yesterday afternoon, and doffing his cap to General Kline announced himself ready for battle. The doughty little captain wore a smile of confidence, which seemed to say "We will recover lost ground, else suffer defeat." Two hours later they could have been seen carefully picking their way along a path strewn with tin cans, broken bottles and decaying vegetation, which led through the back alleys to their barracks at the Randall, while their conquerers proudly paraded the principal streets.

That the game was not won by the midgets was not Joe's fault, for he covered a great scope of ground in every direction except height. Even the elements at first seemed in his favor, but from some unaccountable reason, they too rolled away after dropping a few tears of sympathy, and left Old Sol to act as umpire in chief over the game.

Plainly speaking, Uncle Guy's team was not in it yesterday, and after toying with them, like a cat with a mouse, your highly respected uncle from Evansville proceeded to kill them off without mercy. Had it not been for the work in the outfield, the game would have been as void of features as the grand stands are of paint. A young bird of the Robbins species, was placed in the box for the locals, and while his work was fair, yet at times he would weaken, and then what a pie he was. Ogden's work was particularly fine, he alone having swallowed four long hard shelled flies. In the third Laur looked over the Kid's territory, and not seeing that young gentleman from Wells county hiding behind a mullen stalk, caught one of Robbins' notes on the end of his clubband thought to throw it over the fence, and would have done so had not the Kid sprung for it like a young chicken for a grasshopper, and as his left hand appeared above the weeds, holding the ball, Umpire Kline said "out," and Mr. Laur sorrowfully crossed the diamond from third base. Again in the seventh he chased a low fly across the field and pulled it in, just in time to retire the visitors with two men on bases. Keifer also made a magnificent running catch and a beautiful throw to home plate which doubled up Kirle, who was on his way home. After the battle had waged the required number of rounds and time had been called it was seen that five visitors had been counted in, while but two, Holland and Bruton bore credit marks for the locals.

The following is the score:

SUIT AGAINST PRISON SOUTH.

Contest For the Services of One Hundred Convicts.

(By Indianapolis News.)

A suit filed in the federal court today by Smiley W. Chambers, attorney for John S. Sullivan, of Jefferson City, Mo., will interest the officers of the prison south at Jeffersonville. The complaint alleges that the directors of the prison south advertised for bids for the labor of one hundred convicts for the next ten years, the convicts being those which have been working for the Dennis Claggett Saddle-tree company under the contract system. The bids were opened July 14, and, the complaint alleges, the bid of John S. Sullivan, of Missouri, was to pay 66 cents per day for each convict, for ten years while the bid of the Dennis Claggett company was to pay 65 cents per day for each convict for the same number of years; and that although the bid of Sullivan was eleven cents per day higher for each convict, the bid of the Dennis Claggett company was accepted. This the complaint declares was clearly in violation of the statute, which makes it mandatory upon the prison management to let contracts to the highest responsible bidders. The suit, therefore, is to mandate the prison directors to give the contract to Sullivan.

Mr. Sullivan has employed the convicts of the Missouri penitentiary under the contract system for seventeen years. He alleges that by the ters of the contract given to the Dennis Claggett company, he will be deprived of profits amounting in ten years to $50,000. The Dennis Claggett company is incorporated under Indiana laws, but is composed of Louisville (Ky.) people.

The Catholic church at Oldenburg is considered the handsomest in the state. Nearly $125,000 has been expended, of which $20,000 is represented in the wall surrounding the church and grounds. The wall is of brick, on a Bedford stone basement, with similar stone surmounting it. The altar is of solid marble, and including the golden candlesticks and a golden cross also cost about $20,000, while $7,000 was expended for the organ. The church as a whole is a beautiful structure, symmetrical in its proportions and imposing and grand in every detail.

Weil Brothers, of this city, have established an office on South Fifth avenue, New York city. Mr. Isaac Weil is in charge. He has recently returned to Fort Wayne to relieve his brother, Mr. Abe Weil, and Leo Loeser, who will take a three month's outing in Europe, looking after the foreign business of this rapidly growing concern.

THE SHERIFF MISSING.

The Troubles of the Miners in Tennessee.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 24.—The sheriff of Anderson county, the seat of the mining troubles, has disappeared. The governor will hold another consultation as soon as the sheriff can be found.

Sheriff Rutherford, of Anderson county, can't be found. He was here yesterday and had an engagement to consult with Governor Buchanan, but did not show up. It is thought that he does not want to go with the troops to the mines and has skipped.

It seems that complications are again on all sides. The troops object, and some say they will not go to the mines as guards to convicts and if they insist on this, there is no law compelling them to go. There is great dissatisfaction among them. The governor seems to be non-pulsed as to what course to pursue, although he realizes that something must be done, and quickly. It is reported that the sheriff says he has no processes to serve, and there is at present no mob to put down.

State Attorney General Pickle said this morning that convicts would be carried back to the mines and put to work if there were enough soldiers in the state to do it. Every legal constitutional means, he said, had been exhausted to restore order and no further parleying would be had with the miners or miners' committees. It was the general opinion last night that the soldiers would carry the convicts back to the mines this morning, but so far no orders have been issued.

He was twenty-three years of age and was the son of Christian Luhrman, formerly in the employ of the city, and he lived with his folks at 213 West Washington street, to which place the body was conveyed this afternoon. Yesterday afternoon Officer Fred Dassler arrested Dena Heukamins on the streets for being drunk. She was carrying in her arms the head of a hog, which she had purchased at some butcher shop, and she was covered with blood. She was unable to navigate and Officer Dassler took her to the station house. The woman insisted on taking her hog's head along with her and it was also taken to the police station with her. When she appeared before the mayor today his honor asked who she was. "Don't you know me, your honor," she said, "I have lived here 49 years." The mayor knew her well enough to give the woman ten days in jail and she was taken there. She wanted her hogs head to accompany her and Officer Dassler took it along, but threw it away when the jail yard was reached.
